

New Year's Greetings & Book of Memory

L'Shana Tovah

Beth Israel Sinai

Dear Friends,

Entering the High Holy Day season with awe and trepidation, we ask our Creator to grant us a New Year of health, peace and prosperity. Indeed the entire month preceding Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is a time of reflection and introspection. Every morning at the end of weekday prayers, the piercing sound of the Shofar resonates throughout the world. Its blast is our wake up call to return to our religious heritage. As the High Holy Day Mahzor states that only “repentance, prayer and charity” can bring us closer to our Creator.

Not only do we ask the Holy One to forgive our lack of religious observance, but also more importantly, each of our friends, family members, and neighbors we have wronged. We reflect upon our achievements and failures. We personally seek forgiveness from individuals we have insulted. We renew our commitments to improving the lives of our families and community.

We strengthen our dedication to the survival of a strong Israel and just solution for all the inhabitants of the Middle East. We continue our assistance to the widowed, the infirm, and the orphaned. Only then can we truly merit the title of “G-d’s Chosen People.” May G-d bless us with the ability to make the right choices and bless us in all our future endeavors.

Marcia, Becky, Robyn, Lara, Sam, Greg, Myles and I would like to wish all of our Temple family a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year. As the final awesome blast of the Shofar signals the end of the penitential season, may we all be inscribed and sealed in the Bok of Life.

L’Shana Tova U’Metuka – A Happy and Sweet New Year.
Rabbi Martyn Adelberg

L'Shana Tovah

Another year has passed and as the leaves begin to turn colors we prepare once again for the High Holidays; the joyous celebration of Rosh Hashanah with apples and honey, followed 10 days later by the solemn ceremony of Yom Kippur when we all hope to be sealed into the Book of Life.

We are pleased to bring you the 5772 edition of the New Year's Greeting and Book of Memories. I hope you'll take the time to browse through the listings to remember family and friends present and past.

Rita, MaxAnna, Solomyn and I wish you all a happy, healthy, safe and peaceful year to come.
